

This Charter-mandated audit focused on the activities of an independent entity. Though the audit's recommendations were presented for consideration by that entity, the City cannot require a Departmental Response or Implementation Plan.